

A Day Late . . .

Under each of these entries, write a sentence or two that describes how that event added to rising exasperation in the young Republic. In the triangular spaces below, list any date that could have changed the series of events if critical information had arrived sooner.

WAR OF 1812

Clamor for Hostilities

12. Cadore Letter [Trap]

11. Macon Bill No. 2

10. Non-Intercourse Act (Mar. 1809)

9. Embargo Act (Dec. 1807)

8. Milan Decree (Dec. 17, 1807)

7. Orders in Council (Nov. 1807)

6. Berlin Decree (Nov. 1806)

5. Non-Importation Act (1806)

4. Chesapeake-Leopard Affair

3. British Blockade of France in U.S. coasts

2. Impressment of seamen

1. Broken Voyage policy